THIRD: The purposes for which it is formed are:

a. Generally, consistent with the provisions of 1701.04(A)(3) of the Ohio Revised Code, to engage in any lawful act or activity for which the corporations may be formed under Section 1701.01-1701.98, inclusive, of the Ohio Revised Code.

state are increased, diminished, or in any way affected, or whereby effect is given to any action authorized, ratified, or approved by less than all of the shareholders of any such corporation, shall apply to the corporation and shall be binding upon every shareholder thereof to the same extent as if such statute had been in force at the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation.

EIGHTH: A director or officer of the corporation shall not be disqualified by his office from dealing or contracting with the corporation as a vendor, purchaser, employee, agent, or otherwise. No transaction or contract or act of the corporation shall be void or voidable or in any way affected or invalidated by reason of the fact that any director or officer, or any firm of which any director or officer is a member, or any corporation of which any director or officer is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which any director or officer is a trustee or beneficiary, is in any way interested in such transaction or contract to act. No director or officer shall be accountable or responsible to the corporation for or in respect to any transaction or contract or act of the corporation or for any gains or profits directly or indirectly realized by him by reason of the fact that he or any firm of which he is a member or any corporation of which he is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which he is a trustee or beneficiary, is interested in said transaction, contract or act; provided the fact that such director or officer or such firm or such corporation or such trust is so interested shall have been disclosed or shall have been known to the Board of Directors or such members thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which action upon such contract or transaction or act shall have been taken. Any director may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors which shall authorize or take action in respect to any such contract or transaction or act, and may vote thereat to authorize, ratify, or approve any such contract or transaction or act, and any officer of the corporation may take any action within the scope of his authority respecting such contract or transaction or act with like force and effect as if he or any firm of which he is a member, or any corporation of which he is a shareholder, director, or trustee, or any trust of which he is a trustee or beneficiary, were not interested in such transaction or contract or act. Without limiting or qualifying the foregoing, if in any judicial or other inquiry, suit, cause or proceeding, the question of whether a director or officer of the corporation has acted in good faith is material, then notwithstanding any statute or rule of law or of equity to the contrary (if any there be), his good faith shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary by clear and convincing evidence.

NINTH: Every person who is a director, officer, or employee of the corporation, or a former director, officer, or employee of the corporation, or a person who is serving or has served at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, or employee of another corporation is hereby indemnified against expenses, judgments, decrees, fines, penalties, or amounts paid in settlement in connection with the defense of any pending or threatened action, suit, or proceeding, criminal or civil, to which he is or may be made a party by reason of being or having been such a director, officer, or employee, provided he is determined by the directors of the corporation acting at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to, or threatened with any such action, suit, or proceeding is present (a) not to have been negligent or guilty of misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation of which he is such director, officer, or employee; (b) to have acted in good faith in what he reasonably believed to be the best interest of such corporation; and (c) in any matter the subject of a criminal action, suit, or proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful; provided, however, no director who is a party to or threatened with any such action, suit, or proceeding shall be qualified to vote on such matter. Alternatively, such determinations may be made (a) by court of competent jurisdiction, (b) by the shareholders of the corporation at a meeting held for such purpose by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise a majority of the voting power of the corporation on such proposal or, (c) adopted by the shareholders of the corporation without a meeting by the written consent of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise two-thirds of the voting power on such proposal.

Such indemnification shall be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director, officer, or employee may be entitled including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any insurance purchased by the corporation.
