1) The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The Eden Center and all of its subsidiaries are organized under these exclusive conditions and will only fulfill charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes allowable under section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

2) Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

3) The organization will establish other organizations under the laws of Ohio or any other state to which it chooses to set up an operation in like kind for the purpose of counseling both men and women in cooperation with local Christian churches. These organizations will be established as separate entities although owned wholly by the Eden Center Inc. or as disregarded entities of the Eden Center Inc..

4) The Eden Center Inc. is an autonomous organization not affiliated or directed by any other organization, corporation or religious body. It is a standalone entity established to assist established Christian Churches and those to be established. It is not affiliated with any particular denomination but is available to assist all Christian churches regardless of affiliation or non-affiliation.

5) The Eden Center will operate under a set of By-Laws established by its board of directors for the purpose of establishing the rules and regulations for which the organization was formed and will operate. It will also operate under a statement of faith which will not favor nor endorse any particular churches "private" doctrinal interpretation of the Bible but will defer directly to the Holy Scriptures for all its points of faith allowing the Scriptures to speak for themselves.

6) The sole purpose of the Eden Center is to coordinate the areas where the efforts of the Adam and Eve Centers would lend to duplication. These entities will operate autonomously in regard to day to day operations but will share in areas such as fund raising, grant applications, advertisement and any other parts of functionality that would be duplicated should they operate without affiliation. Each entity established to administer the counseling will have their own operational procedures and their own tax ID # for the purpose of having their own bank accounts and the accountability of operational cost.

7) The Eden Center will give over site to any entities established under it as to adherence to the original purpose and mission statement of the organization and will act as the steering organism for the entities.

DOC ID ----> 201029200584

8) The Eden Center Inc may from time to time find it necessary or appropriate to bring other previously organized entities under its operational umbrella in order to strengthen its operational abilities and to reach a broader base of potential clients and counselors. Any of these organizations will have to meet the same tax exempt purpose and statement of faith as the Eden Center Inc has established. Any such organizations will be organizations established solely for the purpose of charitable, religious, scientific, or educational purposes and will not be for profit organizations.

9) All intellectual property produced by the Eden Center Inc. will be the property of the Eden Center Inc and will not be used by the Center for for-profit ventures but may be used for the purpose of fund raising in order to fund the operation of the organization. The intellectual properties created or written within the organization by its teachers, organizers, officers, incorporators or any other persons within the organization will be the property of that person so long as it is their creation and not the creation of the organization as a whole. The organization will take no responsibility for the rights to or use of that property.

10) The board of the Eden Center Inc will always consist of representation from each of the entities established under it for the purpose of a balance of power within the organization. It may also contain members who are outside of the day to day operation of the subordinate entities but who have a community value, operational value, or intellectual value that will enhance the ability of the Eden Center or any of its affiliates to more effectively achieve its purpose to aid the community through pastoral based Biblical peer-to-peer counseling.

11) Should any entity established under the Eden Center Inc chose to become non-affiliated then that entity will be able to do so but will not have the protection of any of the Eden Center's coverages, Tax Exempt status, or use of properties without express written consent of the Board of Directors. Eden Center Inc. retains the right to disenfranchise any entity that refuses to remain under the guidelines established, by-laws or operational practices of the Eden Center.
