Additional Provisions
To StrivePartnership, LLC Articles of Organization

Purpose. The Company is organized and shall be operated exclusively for exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the "Code") or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. More specifically, the purposes for which the Company is organized are to: (i) unite common providers around shared issues, goals, measurements, and results to improve academic achievement of all children in the Greater Cincinnati area, (ii) further the charitable and educational purposes of the member, and (iii) engage in any other lawful act or activity in furtherance of such charitable and educational purposes permitted by the Ohio Limited Liability Company Act as amended from time to time (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law). Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Organization, the purposes of the Company shall be limited exclusively to exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Limitations. No part of the net earnings of the Company shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, managers, officers or other private persons, except that the Company shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Purpose above. No substantial part of the activities of the Company shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Company shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Organization, the Company shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an Ohio limited liability company exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Dissolution. Upon dissolution of the Company, the managers shall proceed to liquidate and wind up the business of the Company as provided in the Company's Operating Agreement, as the same may be amended from time to time.
