RE: Permissibility of doing business in Ohio under a name that includes "Trust"

Dear Ms. McCauley:

This is in response to your request for authorization to file with the Ohio Secretary of State a name that includes the word "trust", specifically, "Trust Company Family Offices." Division (B)(1) of §1101.15 of the Ohio Revised Code, with specific exceptions, prohibits persons other than bona fide trusts and persons authorized to engage in trust business doing business in Ohio under a designation or name that includes "trust."

I have been able to verify that The Trust Company of Toledo, N.A. is an Office of the Comptroller of the Currency chartered non-depository trust company. Therefore, it is permitted to use "trust" as part of a designation or name under which it does business in Ohio. Therefore, the Division of Financial Institutions does not object to The Trust Company of Toledo, N.A. qualifying to do business in Ohio under the name "Trust Company Family Offices."

This is not an opinion on the availability of the name "Trust Company Family Offices." This is also not an authorization to use the name "Trust Company Family Offices", and this does not protect the user against any lawful claims of persons or entities having superior rights in the same or in similar names. Further, this is not authorization for Trust Company Family Offices to engage in trust business in Ohio.

If you have any questions on this matter, please contact Corporate Specialist Anika Parker, at (614) 644-7515.

Sincerely,

Kevin R. Allard
