Kenyon College announces largest gift in its history

PRESS RELEASE

By Press release submission
Jan 27, 2021

Kenyon College is one of only 10 national liberal arts colleges to have ever received a nine-figure gift. | Kenyon College/Facebook

GAMBIER – Following a semester unlike any other in history, Kenyon has received a once-in-a-generation gift that will help shape its future.

An anonymous donor has committed $100 million to fund construction of three apartment-style residence halls on South Campus, each with room for just over 100 students. The three new buildings will complement iconic Old Kenyon, Hanna and Leonard residence halls and will be designed to last a century or more.

Kenyon is one of only 10 national liberal arts colleges to have ever received a nine-figure gift.

The funding of the new residences allows Kenyon and its loyal supporters to renew focus on growing the endowment for scholarships and financial aid as well as continued support for annual funds, while fulfilling a critical strategic goal of improving housing.

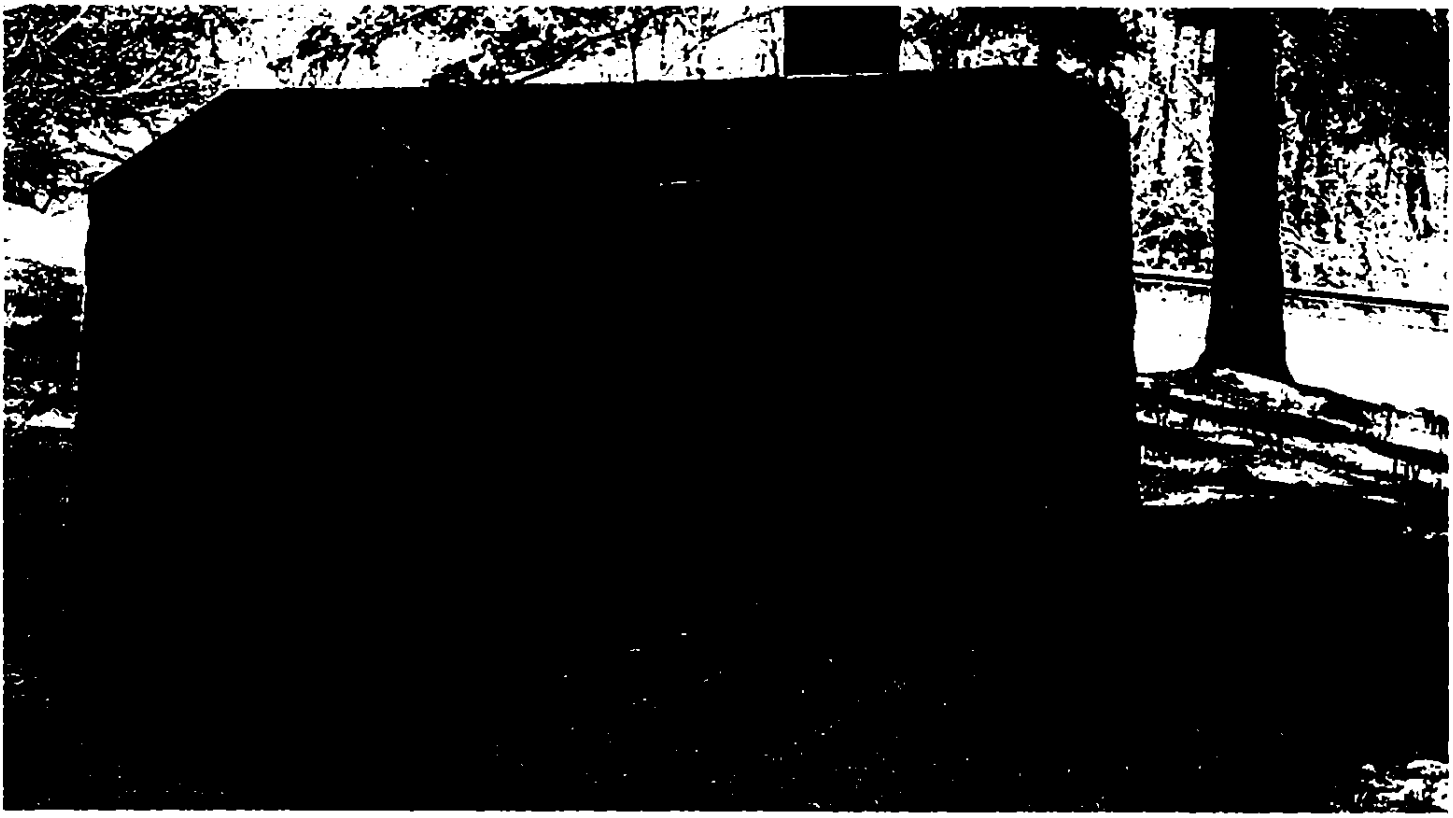

"To receive this record-breaking gift during a pandemic that is still gripping our country and disrupting our academic year speaks volumes about the strength of Kenyon's future," Kenyon President Sean Decatur said. "With this gift, we are
