THIRD: Purpose, continued. The Corporation's purposes shall be pursued only as consistent with organizations that qualify as tax-exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code.

FOURTH: General Prohibitions. The Corporation is a non-profit corporation and no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any Director or Officer of the Corporation, or any member of the Corporation, or any other private individual, except that the Corporation may make payments of reasonable compensation for services rendered. The Corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for office to the extent that would disqualify it as a Section 501(c)(4) organization.

Notwithstanding any provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal tax that is a Section 501(c)(4) organization.

FIFTH: DISSOLUTION. The corporation may be dissolved by the affirmative vote of the majority of the members. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to one or more 501(c)(4) organizations, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine, which are 501(c)(4) organizations.
