THIRD – PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized exclusively for the promotion of social welfare within the meaning of Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), including, but not limited to, undertaking educational and advocacy activities related to public policy issues, and the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(a) of the Code.

The Corporation may engage in any other lawful activities including those necessary, proper or convenient for the accomplishment of any one or more of the purposes stated above, and to exercise all powers and rights now or hereafter conferred on nonprofit corporations under the laws of the state of Ohio which are in furtherance of the purposes for which it was formed.

The Corporation may devote a substantial part of its activities for lobbying purposes (including the publishing or distribution of statements) or otherwise attempt to participate in or influence legislation. The Corporation may participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or opposed to any candidate for public office only to an insubstantial degree. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income taxation of Section 501(c)(4) of the Code.

All of the assets and earnings of the Corporation shall be used exclusively for the purposes herein set forth in this Article Third, including in part, the payment of expenses related thereto. No dividends shall be paid and no part of the net earnings or income of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private shareholder, director, trustee, officer, member or other individual, except that the Corporation shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered.

FOURTH – DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution of the Corporation, all of the then remaining assets of the Corporation shall be distributed solely for one or more of the purposes for which the Corporation is organized, to or for the benefit of an organization or organizations described in Section 501(c)(4) or Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as shall be designated by the Corporation's Board of Directors. Any such asset not disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of appropriate jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located exclusively for such purposes, or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
