forth, either alone or in association with another corporation, firm, or individual, and to do every other act or acts, thing or things incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the aforesaid objects or purposes or any part or parts thereof, provided the same be not inconsistent with the laws under which this corporation is organized.

Each purpose specified in any clause or paragraph contained in this Article Third shall be deemed to be independent of all other purposes herein specified and shall not be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause or paragraph of these Articles of Incorporation.

The corporation reserves the right, at any time and from time to time, substantially to change its purposes, in the manner now or hereafter permitted by statute. Any change of the purposes of the corporation, authorized or approved by the holders of shares entitling them to exercise the proportion of the voting power of the corporation now or hereafter required by statute, shall be binding and conclusive upon every shareholder of the corporation as fully as if such shareholder had voted therefor; and no shareholder, notwithstanding that he may have voted against such change of purposes or may have objected in writing thereto, shall be entitled to payment of the fair cash value of his shares.

FOURTH: The maximum number of shares which the corporation is authorized to have outstanding is five hundred (500) shares without par value.

Shares without par value may be issued pursuant to subscriptions taken by the incorporators for such amounts of consideration as may be specified by the incorporators, and, after organization, shares without par value now or hereafter authorized may be issued or agreed to be issued from time to time for such amounts or amount of consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors in its discretion may fix different amounts and/or kinds of consideration for the issuance of shares without par value, whether issued at the same or different times, and may determine that only a part or proportion of the amount or amounts of consideration which shall be received by the corporation shall be stated capital. Any and all shares without par value so issued, the consideration for which, as fixed by the incorporators or by the Board of Directors, has been paid or delivered, shall be fully paid and non-assessable.

FIFTH: The amount of capital with which the corporation will begin business is Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

SIXTH: The Board of Directors is hereby authorized to fix and determine and to vary the amount of working capital of the corporation, to determine whether any, and, if any, what part of its surplus, however, created or arising, shall be used or disposed of or declared in dividends or paid to shareholders, and, without action by the shareholders, to use and apply such surplus, or any part thereof, at any time or from time to time in the purchase or acquisition of shares of any class, voting trust certificates for shares, bonds, debentures, notes, scrip, warrants, obligations, evidences of indebtedness of the corporation or other securities of the corporation, to such extent or amount and in such manner and upon such terms as the Board of Directors shall deem expedient.

SEVEN: Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code of Ohio, now or hereafter in force, requiring for any purpose the vote or consent of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise two-thirds or any other proportion of the voting power of the corporation or of any class or classes of shares thereof, such action, unless otherwise expressly required by statute, may be taken by the vote or consent of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise a majority of the voting power of the corporation or of such class or classes.

EIGHTH: Every statute of the State of Ohio hereafter enacted, whereby the rights or privileges of shareholders of a corporation organized under the General Corporation Act of said State are increased, diminished or in any way affected, or whereby effect is given to any action authorized, ratified or approved by less than all the shareholders of any such corporation, shall apply to this corporation and shall be binding upon every shareholder thereof to the same extent as if such statute has been in force at the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation.

NINTH: A director of this corporation shall not be disqualified by his office from dealing or contracting with the corporation as a vendor, purchaser, employee, agent, or otherwise; nor shall any transaction or contract or act of this corporation be void or voidable or in any way affected or invalidated by reason of the fact that any director or any firm of which any director is a member or any corporation of which any director is a shareholder or director is in any way interested in such transaction or contract or act, provided the fact that such director or such firm or such corporation is so interested shall be disclosed or shall be known to the Board of Directors or such ~~members~~ thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which action upon any such contract or transaction or act shall be taken; nor shall any such director be accountable or responsible to the corporation for or in respect to any such transaction or contract or act of this corporation or for any gains or profits realized by him by reason of the fact that he or any firm of which he is a ~~member~~ or any corporation of which he is a shareholder or director in such transaction or contract or act; and any such director may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation which shall authorize or take action in respect to any such contract or transaction or act, and may vote thereat to authorize, ratify or approve any such contract or transaction or act, with like force and effect as if he or any firm of which he is a ~~member~~ or any corporation of which he is a shareholder or director were not interested in such transaction or contract or act.
