and any and all trademarks, trade names, trade symbols and other indications of origin and ownership granted by or recognized under the laws of the United States or of any other country, state, territory, or locality.

Each purpose specified in any clause or paragraph contained in this Article Third shall be deemed to be independent of all other purposes herein specified and shall not be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause or paragraph of these Articles of Incorporation.

The purpose, along with the other above set forth specified purposes, is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be formed under Sections 1701.01 to 1701.98 inclusive of the Revised Code.

The foregoing enumeration of purposes shall also be construed both as objects and powers and it is expressly provided that such enumeration of specific objects and powers shall in no way limit or restrict the powers of the corporation in any manner whatsoever.

FOURTH. The number of shares which the corporation is authorized to have outstanding shall be Five Hundred (500) Common Shares, all of which shall be without par value.

FIFTH. The minimum amount of paid-in capital with which this corporation shall begin business is Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

SIXTH. The corporation reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, substantially to change its purposes in the manner now or hereafter permitted by statute. Any change of the purposes of the corporation, authorized or approved by the holders of shares entitling them to exercise the proportion of the voting powers of the corporation now or hereafter required by statute, shall be binding and conclusive upon every shareholder of the corporation as fully as if such shareholder had voted therefor; and no shareholder, notwithstanding that he may have voted against such change of purposes or may have objected in writing thereto, shall be entitled to payment of the full cash value of his shares.

SEVENTH. This corporation shall have the power and authority, upon the affirmative vote of a simple majority of its Board of Directors, and without action by its shareholders, to purchase, hold, sell, transfer, reissue and cancel its own shares, provided it shall not use its funds or property for such purpose when such use would cause any impairment of its capital, and further provided, that shares of its own Capital Stock belonging to it and held as Treasury Shares shall not be voted, directly or indirectly.

EIGHTH. At any time and from time to time, after the organization of the corporation, shares of its Capital Stock without par value may be issued, sold or subscribed for, for such consideration for each share and upon such other terms as may be fixed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

NINTH. No officer, director or shareholder of the corporation shall be disqualified by his office, membership or stock ownership from dealing or contracting with the corporation as a vendor, purchaser, employee, agent, or in any other similar or dissimilar capacity; nor shall any transaction, contract or act of the corporation be void or voidable or in any way affected or invalidated by reason of the fact that any such officer, director or shareholder of the corporation, any firm of which he may be a member or any other corporation of which he may be an officer, director or shareholder, is in any way interested in such transaction, contract or act, provided the interest of such officer, director or shareholder is disclosed to or known by the Board of Directors of the corporation, or such members thereof as shall be present at any meeting at which actions are taken upon any such transaction, contract or act. Neither shall such officer, director or shareholder be accountable or otherwise responsible to the corporation for or in connection with any such transaction, contract or act, or for any gains or profits realized by him by reason of the fact that he, any firm of which he is a member, or any other corporation of which he is an officer, director or shareholder, is interested in any such transaction, contract or act. Any such officer, director or shareholder, if he is a director, may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation which shall authorize or take action upon any such transaction, contract or act, and he may vote at such meeting to authorize, adopt, ratify or approve any such transaction, contract or act to the same extent as if he, any firm of which he is a member, or any other corporation of which he is an officer, director or shareholder, were not interested in such transaction, contract or act.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name this 31st day of August, 1976.
