ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
NORTH COAST TEMPORARIES, INC.

The undersigned, a majority of whom are citizens of the United States of America, desiring to form a corporation, for profit, under Sections 1701.01 et seq. of the Revised Code of Ohio, do hereby certify as follows:

First: The name of said corporation shall be North Coast Temporaries, Inc.

Second: The place in Ohio where its principal office is to be located is in Sandusky, Erie County, Ohio.

Third: The purpose for which it is formed is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be formed under Sections 1701.01 to 1701.98, inclusive, of the Revised Code of Ohio

Fourth: The number of shares which the corporation is authorized to have issued and outstanding is seven hundred and fifty (750) shares, all of which shall be common stock without par value.

Fifth: The amount of stated capital with which the corporation shall begin business is the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

Sixth: A director or officer of the corporation shall not be disqualified from his office by dealing or contracting with the corporation as a vendor, purchaser, employee, agent, or otherwise. No transaction, contract, or other act of the corporation shall be void or voidable or in any way affected or invalidated by reason of the fact that any director or officer, or any partnership, firm, corporation, or trust in which such director or officer is a partner, member, shareholder, employee, director, officer, beneficiary, or trustee, is in any way interested in such transaction, contract, or other act, provided that the fact that such director, officer, partnership, firm, corporation, or trust is so interested shall be disclosed or shall be known to the board of directors or a majority of such members thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the board of directors, or any committee of directors having the powers of the full board of directors, at which action upon any such transaction, contract, or other act shall be taken. No such director or officer shall be accountable or responsible to the corporation for or in respect of any such transaction, contract, or other act of the corporation or for any gains or profits realized by him by reason of the fact that he or any partnership, firm, corporation, or trust of which he is a shareholder, member, director, partner, employee, officer, beneficiary, or trustee is interested in such transaction, contract, or other act. Any such director may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors of the corporation which shall authorize or take action in respect of any such transaction, contract, or other act, and may vote thereat to authorize, ratify, or approve any such transaction, contract, or other act with like force and effect as if he or any partnership, corporation, or trust of which he is a partner, member, employee, shareholder, director, officer, beneficiary, or trustee were not interested in such transaction, contract, or other act.

Seventh: The corporation may purchase, from time to time and to the extent permitted by the laws of Ohio, shares of any class of stock issued by it. Such purchases may be made either in the open market or at private or public sale in such manner and amounts from such holder or holders of outstanding stock of the corporation and at such prices as the board of directors of the corporation shall from time to time determine, and the board of directors is hereby empowered to authorize such purchases from time to time without any vote of the holders of any class of shares now or hereafter authorized and outstanding at the time of any such purchase.

Eighth: Except as otherwise provided herein, every person who is or has been a director or officer of the corporation and his heirs and legal representatives are hereby indemnified by the corporation against expenses and liabilities actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of either (i) any action, suit, or proceeding to which he may be a party defendant, or (ii) any claim of liability asserted against him by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the corporation. Without limitation, the term "expenses" includes any amount paid or agreed to be paid in satisfaction of a judgment or in settlement of a judgment or claim of liability other than any amount paid or agreed to be paid to the corporation itself. The corporation does not, however, indemnify any director or officer in respect to any matter as to which he shall be finally adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties as such director or officer, nor, in the case of a settlement, unless such settlement shall be found to be in the interest of the corporation by (i) the court having jurisdiction of the action, suit or proceedings against such director or officer or of a suit involving his right to indemnification, or (ii) a majority of the directors of the corporation then in office other than those involved in such matter (whether or not such majority constitutes a quorum), or, if there are not at least two (2) directors of the corporation then in office, other than those involved in such matter, by a majority of a committee (selected by the board of directors) of three (3) or more shareholders of the corporation who are not directors or officers, provided that such indemnity in case of a settlement shall not be allowed by such director or committee of shareholders unless it is found by independent legal counsel (meaning a lawyer who is not a director, officer, or employee of the corporation, and is not a partner or professional associate of a director, officer, or employee of the corporation) that such settlement is reasonable in amount and in the best interests of the corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to all rights to which any director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.

Ninth: Notwithstanding any provisions of the laws of the state of Ohio now or hereafter in force requiring for any purpose the vote of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise two-thirds (2/3), or any other proportion, of the voting power of the corporation or of any class or classes of shares thereof, such action unless otherwise expressly required by statute may be taken by vote of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise a majority of the voting power of the corporation or of such class or classes.

Tenth: No stockholder of the corporation shall, because of his ownership of stock, have a preemptive right or other right to purchase, subscribe for, or take any part of any stock or any part of the notes, debentures, bonds, or other securities convertible into or carrying options or warrants to purchase stock of the corporation issued, optioned or sold by it after its incorporation. Any part of the capital stock and any part of the notes, debentures, bonds, or other securities that are convertible into or carrying options or warrants to purchase stock of the corporation authorized by this certificate of incorporation or by an amended certificate duly filed, may at any time be issued, optioned for sale, and sold or disposed of by the corporation pursuant to a resolution of its board of directors to such persons and upon such terms as may to such board seem proper without first offering such securities or stock or any part thereof to existing stockholders.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name, this 29th day of February, 1984.
